

At last, Dorothy reached the end of the yellow brick walkway and found the winning Munchkins. She was told that the MECO Munchkins, followed by MEA then LEX, would be able to help her go back to Kansas for they were the 3 wisest groups in the Land of SOM. Despite all the fun Dorothy had, she was faced with the reality that she had to go back to Kansas.

And so she gathered up her courage and asked them what she should do. They told her, all she had to do was say...

There’s no place like SOM,
THERE’S NO PLACE LIKE SOM”

there's no place like

SOM

THE END
