ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICATION

The Minor is open to all undergraduate students at the Loyola Schools, Ateneo de Manila University, except those pursuing the A.B. Economics (Honors and Standard) and A.B. Management Economics, and students with double-major status in the Department of Economics.

Students interested in pursuing the Minor have to send an application letter to the Department of Economics, endorsed by their home department and attached copy of grades. Likewise, students admitted to the Minor program must file a load revision form to be endorsed by the department chair of their home department and approved by the department chair of economics. Once admitted, students may take the required courses beginning in the next immediate semester. In certain cases, it may be necessary that students in the Minor in Economics take the required courses as overload subjects.

To be admitted to the Minor Program, students must have obtained a minimum grade of C in Ec 102 and an unweighted minimum average of 1.75 in all math courses taken at the time of application. Students must maintain an unweighted minimum average of C in all the required courses.

COMPLETION

Students will receive a certificate upon completion of the required economic courses. The Department of Economics provides the Office of the Registrar a list of names who have completed the Program. The student's Transcript of Records will indicate Minor in Economics in addition to his/her major field of specialization.
